Taleb Sensei's Aikido career began in September, 1972, under T. Ichimura, Sensei, 6th Dan Aikido, 6th Dan Iaido. After only two years of intense training he was permitted by Sensei Ichimura to begin teaching the sword and staff techniques as an integral part of Aikido on a regular basis at the Uppsala Aikido Club, Sweden. From 1984 to the time he left Sweden in 1994, Taleb Sensei trained at one of the affiliated dojos for Y. Kobayashi, Sensei, 8th Dan and Igarashi Sensei, 7th Dan Aikido. He also instructed and trained under Urban Aldenklint, 5th Dan Aikido. From June 1995 to September 2006, Taleb Sensei was the Dojo Cho at Lenape Aikikai, Mays Landing, New Jersey and Guest Instructor at Philadelphia Aikikai from November 1994 to September 2006. Currently, Taleb Sensei teaches at Asheville Aikikai. His style is still on weapons, as an integral part of Aikido, with an emphasis on Nishio Sensei's sword and staff techniques.
